IN THE HIGH COURT OF THE FEDERAL CAPITAL TERRITORY, ABUJA
NIGERIA PROBATE DIVISION
NOTICE OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS

The attention of executors, Administrators, and of the public generally is hereby referred to Rule 41 of order 48 of the High Court (Civil Procedure) Rules 2004.

Order 48 Rule 41 High Court (Civil Procedure) Rules. Administration generally

41, (1) Every person to whom a grant of Probate Letters of Administration has or have been made, and every administrator appointed by the Court shall, if called upon by the Court so to do, file in court the accounts of his administration and shall thereafter file such further periodic accounts as the courts may direct until the completion of the administration.

(2) Such executor or administration who fails within any such period to file his accounts as aforesaid shall be liable to such penalty not exceeding One Hundred Naira as the Court may thinks fit to impose and every such fine shall on non-payment be enforceable by distress, and failing sufficient distress by imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

(3) When an account is filed in court this rule, the Court shall scrutinize account and if it appears to the Court that by reason of improper unvouched or unjustifiable entries or otherwise the account is not a full, and proper account, the Court may give a written notice to the person filling the account to remedy such defects as there may be within such time as to the Court may Seem reasonable for the purpose and on failure to remedy such defects within such time, the person who filed such defective account shall be deemed to have failed to file an account within the meaning of this rule and proceedings may be taken against that person accordingly.

(4) The Court may, on the motion of any party interested, or of its own motion, summon any executor or administrator failing as aforesaid, to show cause why he should not to be punished as aforesaid.

(5) The Court may, for good cause shown extend the time for such filing of accounts

(6) Any executor or administrator who has been granted and extension of time to file to file such accounts and who fails within such extended time to file such accounts shall be liable to the penalty set out above and the procedure for bringing him before the Court shall be as set out above.

(7) It shall be the duty of the Probate Registrar to bring to the notice of the Court the fact that any executor, administrator has failed to file his accounts as required by this rule.

(8) Such accounts shall be open free of charge to the inspection of all persons satisfying the Probate Registrar that they are interested in the administration.

(9) In this rule the word "accounts" includes an inventory, and account of the administration, the vouchers in hands of the executors or administrators relating thereto, and an affidavit in verification.
